What we cannot fund

Voluntary Sector Services

Generally CCIF does not fund voluntary sector services as they tend to be significantly larger organisations. CCIF focuses on smaller groups and organisations which are community-run.

Parish Councils

CCIF can support community-based activity and volunteering which is also supported by the Parish Council or community projects delivered by Parish Councils or Parish Council activities designed to solve a local problem or issue. It is not a substitute fund for services and activities which Parish Councils are responsible.

Retrospective Grants/Debts

CCIF does not make retrospective grants. However sometimes groups may have unexpected bills and expenses which can result in a shortfall in the groups' general running costs. CCIF can help to cover a group or organisation's general running costs.

Religious Activities

CCIF does not fund religious activities, but it can fund local churches and other places of worship. Many places of worship are used by community groups and host a variety of community events and activities. However, if the application is specifically for a religious activity, then this cannot be funded.

Organisations that do not provide benefit to the residents of the Staffordshire Moorlands

Applications must be from organisations that benefit the residents of Staffordshire Moorlands.

Non-Voluntary Organisations

CCIF does not fund non-voluntary organisations. For example, CCIF does not fund schools as they are not voluntary organisations. (However CCIF could support PTFAs which are voluntary).

Individuals

CCIF does not fund individuals. Applicants need to clearly demonstrate that there will be community benefit.

Political Activities

CCIF does not fund political activities.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can Councillors support groups and organisations that they are involved with?

Yes they can. Councillors should declare any interests on Part Two of the Application Form where there is a specific question about this.

Can CCIF fund temporary or informal groups?

Yes it can. CCIF intends to support grass-roots, community-led activity, this includes temporary projects or one-off events and activities. Under these circumstances the group or organisation may not have its own bank account, therefore the CCIF grant can be paid to another group or organisation which is willing to accept the grant on their behalf.

Do groups and organisations need to send in copies of invoices/ receipts/ quotes?

No, groups and organisations do not need to supply this paperwork. CCIF offers local groups and organisations small amounts of funding, this level of monitoring would be disproportionate to the level of grant. Local Councillors will have good knowledge of and a good relationship with the group or organisation that they are supporting, and would therefore be aware of any issues with the group.

How are grants publicised?

Councillors or groups may wish to make their own arrangements for publicising grants.

What types of projects have been funded in the past?

A full list of all grants awarded in previous years is available on the District Council's website www.staffsmoorlands.gov.uk
